

Option 1: WE WILL BE IN TOWN/AVAILABLE THE WHOLE SUMMER

- Continue with the frequency of weekly sessions as currently scheduled
- If your current time is not ideal, then your therapist can work with you to see if there is an alternative time available
- You will be considered an “active” client and will get priority for fall scheduling if recommended

Option 2: WE WILL MISS NO MORE THAN TWO SESSIONS THIS SUMMER

- Continue with the frequency of weekly sessions as currently scheduled; re-schedule the anticipated missed appointments with your therapist
- If your current time is not ideal, then your therapist can work with you to see if there is an alternative time available; treatment time does not need to be consistent, but attendance does
- You will be considered an “active” client and will get priority for fall scheduling if recommended
- You must inform your therapist of days you will be on vacation asap

Option 3: WE WILL MISS THREE OR MORE SESSIONS THIS SUMMER

- You will be put on a “flex” schedule for the summer and we can propose session options that are available week by week (may be different days/times)
- Please note you may be placed on another therapist’s schedule as availability is limited
- You will still be considered an “active” client and will get priority (after the weekly scheduled clients) for fall scheduling if recommended
- You must inform your therapist of days you will be on vacation asap

Option 4: WE ARE UNABLE TO COMMIT TO SUMMER THERAPY

- You will be considered an “inactive” client
- If you and your child’s therapist determine therapy should resume in the fall, we will contact you in late July/early August to schedule your child for weekly sessions after all active clients have been scheduled.
- We are unable to guarantee you will be placed on your current therapist’s schedule, but we will try our best!
